

SCOUTS | BSA

Troop Self-Assessment Troop Committee

Question	Response	Points
1. The troop committee supports the Scoutmaster and the Scoutmaster Corps in handling troop administration allowing them to deliver quality troop programming.	Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree
2. The troop committee meets monthly.	12 Months 9-11 Months 5-8 Months 0-4 Months
3. Every troop committee member has an assigned area of responsibility.	Yes No
4. Troop committee chair is position trained and may have completed Wood Badge.	Completed Wood Badge Position Trained Not Position Trained
5. All troop committee members are position trained; some have completed Wood Badge.	All Position Trained, Some completed Wood Badge All Position Trained Some Position Trained None Position Trained
6. The Scoutmaster attends monthly troop committee meetings and provides a report.	12 Months 9-11 Months 5-8 Months 0-4 Months
7. The troop committee approves the annual plan created by the patrol leaders' council.	Yes No
8. The Scoutmaster meets with the committee chair at least monthly.	12 Months 9-11 Months 5-8 Months 0-4 Months
9. The troop committee has sufficient leadership depth so that no member is overextended or indispensable.	Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree
10. The troop committee has a succession plan in place for the committee chair, key committee members, and the Scoutmaster	Strongly Agree Agree Disagree Strongly Disagree
TOTAL		/ 40

Your score indicates your Troop: